CutisCo Dermatology™

Date: 2025-03-01
Job Position: Postgraduate Gap Year Program 2025-2026

Program Overview

Each year, CutisCo Dermatology offers an enriching Gap Year Program for motivated pre-med and pre-PA/NP students seeking hands-on clinical experience. This unique opportunity allows participants to assist in surgeries, scribe alongside board-certified dermatologists and physician assistants, and develop essential clinical skills. With dedicated mentorship and personalized guidance, students gain invaluable insights into the medical field, preparing them for successful careers in healthcare.

Program Details

- Paid position equivalent to a Medical Assistant role
- Employment period: July 1 – June 30 (may start earlier if desired)
- Participate in didactic lectures and hands-on skills training (e.g., suturing)
- Access to dermatology education resources
- Engage in CutisCo-led outreach programs
- Quarterly meetings with the program director (Dr. Anh Pham)

The Ideal Candidate

- Recent graduate with a bachelor's degree
- Pre-med or pre-PA/NP student with a strong academic record
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Able to commit to a one-year position at CutisCo

Program Completion & Letter of Recommendation

Upon successfully completing the CutisCo Gap Year Program, graduates will receive a letter of recommendation from the program director, incorporating feedback from all physicians and PAs they worked with throughout the year.

Apply to the CutisCo Gap Year Program

This highly selective program opens for applications on March 1. We are currently accepting applications for the 2025-2026 academic year.

To apply, please email careers@cutisco.com with the following:

- Subject line: 2025-2026 Gap Year Program
- Cover Letter – Highlight your educational background and explain how working with CutisCo Dermatology aligns with your career goals.
- Resume/CV – Detail your relevant experience, skills, and achievements.
- Three References – Provide contact information and your relationship to each reference.

We look forward to reviewing your application!